DAILY DEMOCRAT-FORUM

(Successor to the Maryville Republican)

VOLUME 2. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY, MAR. 13, 1912 NO. 243.

MR. CLARK WAS 62

HIS ANNIVERSARY MADE OCCASION FOR GREAT DEMONSTRATION

HOLDS TO POST OF DUTY

While Other Candidates Are "Beating Up the Brush," Speaker is Attending Strictly to Business.

By VAN CLEVE.

Washington, D. C., March 10.—A remarkable meeting was held here Thursday evening. Ten thousand people crowded into the big convention hall to honor Champ Clark on the occasion of his sixty-second birthday. No such testimonial was ever given to any one here, and the Missouri speaker can lay claim to the biggest birthday party yet pulled off. The affair followed a series of informal expressions of esteem and good will during the day in the house of representatives and was teeming with enthusiasm. A number of excellent speeches were made, the greatest being that of Senator James A. Reed of Missouri. Senator Reed captivated his great audience with his eloquence, in which he pictured the history of the Democracy and contrasted Champ Clark's consistent and unvarying fidelity to his party, his great constructive leadership, his courageous efforts in behalf of the people and the achievements of his life, with the vaccillating uncertainties of one of the Republican candidates and the flippant eccentricities of the other.

The senator's address was frequently stopped by applause, and he received a great ovation at its close. Other addresses were made by Representatives Neely of Kansas, Graham of Illinois and former Representative Pence of Colorado. A band lent its enlivening strains and the crowd frequently joined in singing popular songs. At the close of the program Mr. Clark arose to express his appreciation and was greeted with cheers that lasted for several minutes, the entire audience rising to their feet and waving handkerchiefs, etc. Deeply affected by the demonstration, the speaker made a short and appropriate response, in which he assured the people that, whatever might be the outcome of the campaign in his behalf, he wanted no friend of his to utter "an unkind word against any other candidate" for the Democratic nomination. The affair was gotten up by his friends here in the district, and they confidently expect to secure the votes of the District of Columbia for him at Baltimore.

Within the past week several of the big dailies of the east that have refused to regard Champ Clark as seriously in the race, have revised their estimates, and state that he is no longer to be regarded as a dark horse or a compromise candidate, but must now be placed as first or second in the race. Harmon stock has declined rapidly and the race is conceded to be between Clark and Wilson. Up to the present Clark is not only in the lead but is the only candidate with any showing of delegates. He has forty-six delegates instructed, with twenty more coming from Kansas next Wednesday, unless his friends there are badly deceived. Of the balance, Wilson has ten from Oklahoma, Harmon none, Underwood none. Had the Oklahoma convention been later or Mr. Folk's withdrawal earlier, the entire delegation from that state would have gone to Clark. It was persistently argued there that he was in danger of losing his own state, and this was a great handicap. Many delegates were uninstructed, and Gov. Harmon had enough to hold the balance of power. Had Clark's friends agreed to tie up with the Harmon following and divide the state, they could have controlled the situation, but they refused to do this, and instead agreed to an equal division with Wilson. The speaker has persistently refused to tie up with any other candidate, insisting that he must win on his own merits, if at all. At the same time he wants no abuse of other candidates. Recognizing his rapidly growing strength, advantage has been taken of his desire for party harmony within the past week, and stories of a combination against Gov. Wilson have been circulated by some of his followers. The loud cry of "combination" always indicates a feeling of weakness and alarm, and, unless substantiated with incontestable facts, harms the complainant more than it does good. When advised to fight back, Mr. Clark replies: "What will it profit me to gain the nomination and lose the election?"

* * *

While other candidates for the presidential nomination are forsaking their posts of duty and scurrying over the country making speeches, Champ Clark has refused to leave the speaker's chair. He holds that having been elected to the place, his duty is to stay with it and let his friends and the people work out the presidential situation to suit themselves. The only exception he has made was to run down to his old home state of Kentucky Saturday afternoon and speak to the Kentucky legislature. He was absent from the chair only a few hours, and has been in his place every day since the present session began. In the judgment of the writer this is the best politics he could play, notwithstanding the clamor there has been for him to accept numerous invitations to all parts of the country. Of recent years there has been entirely too much personal electioneering on the part of presidential candidates. The old-time dignity of the office has been forgotten, and neither the position nor the president's have been exalted in the eyes of the people. The best campaign promise is a record of public service well done and of acts and efforts to promote right and justice between men and toward all men.

BLUES ARE VICTORIOUS.

A Hotly Contested Game Tuesday Between That Team and High Flyers.

In a hotly contested game on Tuesday evening, the Blues defeated the High Flyers, another all-high school team, by a 27-20 score. Considerable interest is being manifested in these inter-high school games, and quite a number of enthusiastic rooters were lustily cheering for their favorites. The Blues have been working together almost all winter, and are beginning to show considerable form together with very pretty team work. Taylor at forward and Miller at guard showed up particularly well for them in yesterday evening's game, while Ford was the principal performer for their opponents. The High Flyers, though but recently organized, have some excellent material to work with, and by the time they next clash with their opponents, should be able to make the game a hair raiser. The question is now being agitated in regard to forming a four-team league in the high school for those who take no interest in track work. It is thought by those interested in the plan, that if a small admission is charged the money obtained in this way would aid very materially in equipping the track team.

The line-up of the game:

The Blues—Robinson, Taylor, Condon, forwards; Willson, center; Blagg, Miller, guards.

The High Flyers—Montgomery, Ford, forwards; Thompson, center; Lyle, Campbell, guards.

Points made—Field goals, Robinson, Taylor 6, Willson 4, Condon, Thompson 3, Montgomery 2, Ford 5. Free throws, Robinson, Taylor 2.

R. I. THOMPSON DEAD

PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY THIS MORNING AT UNIONVILLE.

AT O. S. MIDDLETON HOME

Was M. E. Pastor at Mound City—a Maryville Pastor in 1904-5—Succeeded Rev. Lytle.

Rev. R. L. Thompson, pastor of the M. E. church at Mound City, died suddenly at Unionville, Mo., at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, at the home of the late Rev. O. S. Middleton, whose funeral services he had been called to conduct on Tuesday afternoon.

The news of Rev. Thompson's death was received by phone message from Rev. T. J. Enyeart of St. Joseph to District Superintendent Christy of this city. Rev. Enyeart was in Unionville with other ministers who had gone to that city to attend Rev. Middleton's funeral. He stated that the body would be taken to Mound City Thursday. No further particulars are yet known, but it is supposed by Maryville friends that he died of an acute attack of gastritis, from which he was a great sufferer.

Rev. Thompson succeeded Rev. E. B. Lytle to the pastorate of the First M. E. church in Maryville in 1904 and continued as pastor two years. He was followed by Rev. Grant A. Robbins, now of St. Louis. Rev. Thompson was about 60 years of age and had been a member of the Missouri conference since 1879. He held pastorates at Middletown, Sand Hill, Green City, Macon, Bethany, Stanberry, Kirksville, Maryville, Huffman Memorial church at St. Joseph, Hamilton and Mound City. He was presiding elder of the Cameron district in 1891 to 1896.

NO SNOW THERE.

J. L. Gunsolley Writes to This Paper About the Climate in Southern Missouri.

Eldorado Springs, Mo.—Editor Democrat-Forum: Agreeable to promise I essay the task of writing you a few lines in the way of condolence. I read in the papers of the snow you have and are still having. We have had but little snow here this winter up to February 20, but since then we have had something like one and a half feet all told, but one snow would be nearly gone when the other would come, and no drifts. Frost has been out of the ground for three weeks, so we have had some mud, but not the stick kind. This country is not up with the counties farther north with good roads, but we hope to get into line soon and make some needed improvements. It is raining today, but I would rather see that than snow drifts six to ten feet deep. I like this southern climate fine, much better than Northern Missouri, so no one need look for me back there to live. Old settlers say this is the worst winter they ever saw here. Feed is high here. Much of it is shipped in. Corn is worth 75 cents, and other feeds in proportion. The protracted drought last summer cut all crops short, but the ground is wet now to the bottom layer. It is thought that peaches are about all killed. You people have my sympathy in times of deep snow and impassable drifts.

J. L. GUNSOLLY.

DEATH OF J. R. BROOKS.

Was Found Dead in Bed Wednesday Morning by His Wife—Lived at Graham.

J. R. Brooks, who lived at Graham, died suddenly Wednesday morning and was found dead in bed by his wife about 5 o'clock. He had been in ill health for some time, and the cause of the death was tuberculosis of the lungs. Mr. Brooks is about 50 years old and had lived at Graham several years. Mrs. Brooks is the telephone central operator at that town.

The funeral will be held Thursday and burial will take place in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. No children survive.

WILL HUNT FOR OIL

WORK TO COMMENCE AS SOON AS THE SNOW IS OFF.

30000 ACRES UNDER LEASE

Allen Brothers Will Meet R. W. Wallace in St. Joseph Thursday to Confer as to Lease Changes.

John Allen of this city will go to St. Joseph Thursday to meet R. W. Wallace, who was in Nodaway county last fall getting leases on farm land to prospect for oil and gas, to confer with him in regard to the leases and other matters. Joseph Allen, who has been in Texas, will meet them in St. Joseph.

The leases were all turned over to Allen Bros. of this city, and since W. J. Nelson of St. Louis, one of the interested parties, withdrew, it is necessary that his name be left out in the leases, as eastern parties have taken Nelson's place.

Mr. Wallace writes that all the necessary tools and machinery will be here soon, and that work will start just as soon as the snow is off of the ground and a place is located where it is more likely that oil can be found. Mr. Wallace has been away from the county for several months and will return as soon as the work of prospecting will start. He feels confident that oil will be found here. There are over 30,000 acres of land in the county that have been leased to prospect for oil and gas.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Observed Her Birthday.

Mrs. Lizzie Richey, living at 402 South Hester street, was surprised Tuesday by her children and a number of her neighbors who came with well filled baskets and spread a sumptuous dinner in honor of her birthday anniversary. Those present were David Richey of Fanning, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richey of Burlington Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Wagner of Burlington Junction, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ulmer, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Edwards and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ulmer and two daughters, Miss Golda Majors and son, Ollie.

The Shakespeareans Met.

The Shakespearean department of the Twentieth Century club were delighted to meet and greet their hostess, Mrs. Horace Leet, after her long illness, on Tuesday afternoon. After quotations from Act I of "The Tempest," a general outline of the study was given by Miss Clara Sturm in lieu of Miss Mae Corwin, who had prepared it but was unable to be present. A general symposium was conducted by Mrs. D. J. Thomas, the chairman. The song by Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend was postponed until the next meeting, which will be held with Mrs. Berney Harris, and instead of this program Mrs. Scribner Beech, Sr., provided with a large map, gave a fine talk on Mexico, the inhabitants, the insurrection, and the future outlook, showing that her heart, or a good part of it, was in that much discussed country at present. Mrs. Beech's daughter, Mrs. Curtis Alexander, is a resident of San Luis Potosi. Her letters to her parents convey no such news of impending war and danger to Americans that the newspapers have been telling of. But Mr. and Mrs. Alexander are a good three days' travel from the recent scenes of revolution, and there has not been even a hint of trouble in their region. Mrs. George P. Bellows called attention to many interesting current events, from the advent of a new rose to the outburst of the suffragettes. If each lady of the club does not become a first class parliamentarian it will be for no lack of perfect drill by Mrs. E. G. Orear. After the program was concluded Mrs. Leet served dainty refreshments. Mrs. M. A. Ummethum of Kansas City, Mrs. Orear's mother, was a visitor during the afternoon.

On Visit to Des Moines.

Mrs. O. L. Robey and son, Donald LaVerne, went to Stanberry Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Norman.

PRAISE FOR NORMAL.

Remarks of Prominent School Men Are Very Complimentary to the School Here.

While in Mound City last Friday acting as a judge in the Mound City-Savannah high school debate, Prof. E. L. Harrington of the Normal, received many hearty endorsements of the work carried on by the Maryville Normal. While in Mound City Mr. Harrington spent most of his time with J. U. Crosen, superintendent of the Mound City schools, and also with Superintendent Brooks of the Oregon schools. Both of these men were loud in their praises of what they had been hearing this year concerning the work of the Northwest Normal school. Supt. Crosen said that nearly all of his grade teachers were in attendance at the 1911 summer term of the local Normal, and that he, as superintendent, could easily see the marked improvement in their efficiency as teachers, due to their training in the summer school. Last summer a large delegation of splendid young people from Holt county attended the Normal, and even a larger number will be in attendance this summer.

As Supts. Crosen and Brooks are recognized throughout the state as strong school men, such remarks as the above means that the good work of the Normal is being recognized among those who are able to judge efficiently. The remarks of these men are but an example of the many flattering reports that are coming in from various parts of the district.

APRIL 5 ARBOR DAY.

Governor Hadley Issued Proclamation for Arbor Day.

Governor Hadley Monday issued the following Arbor day proclamation:

"Whereas, the laws of this state set aside the first Friday after the first Tuesday in April of each year, which this year falls on April 5, as Arbor day, and provide that the teachers, pupils and patrons of the different schools throughout the state shall, on that day, encourage the planting of trees, shrubbery, and flowers upon and around the school grounds, in order that said grounds may be rendered pleasant and attractive;

"Now therefore, I, Herbert S. Hadley, governor of the state of Missouri, request that, in accordance with the provisions of said law, every public, private and denominational school shall comply with the letter and spirit of the state law and plant upon the school grounds, with proper ceremonies, some tree, shrub, or flower native to Missouri.

"I suggest that the public exercises conducted be such as will serve to impress the children and the parents and the people of the state generally with the value and importance of encouraging forestry and the proper use and conservation of our soil and other great natural resources. I have requested Hon. William P. Evans, state superintendent of public schools, to communicate to the different schools of the state suggestions as to the character and nature of the exercises to be conducted."

TO GIVE DECISION

Latter Part of Week in Rasco Case—May Grant Respite.

Word was received in Maryville Wednesday afternoon that Governor Hadley would not give a decision in regard to the Rasco appeal for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment until the latter part of the week. It is thought, however, that while the governor is opposed to capital punishment, he will not give a decision contrary to the decision of the supreme court.

As is always customary in cases of this kind, Governor Hadley may grant Rasco a respite of thirty days, putting the hanging off that many more days. But it is understood that the attorneys, in presenting the case to Governor Hadley, told him that they were not after a respite, and that they want him to decide the commutation of the sentence one way or the other.

Dr. F. M. Ryan of Quitman was in Maryville Wednesday a short time on his way to Hopkins for a professional visit.

SCHOOLS TO MERGE

CONSOLIDATION TO BE VOTED ON IN UNION TOWNSHIP.

TALKING IT OVER NOW

The Vote Taken April 2 Will Decide Question, With Every Probability That It Will Go Through.

The meetings that President H. K. Taylor and County Superintendent W. M. Oakerson are holding in Union township to talk of the advantages of the consolidation of schools are very successful, and a good attendance was present at each meeting. The first meeting was held at Bloomfield Tuesday afternoon, and then on Tuesday night, a meeting was held at Glendale school house, two and a half miles north of Pickering. A meeting was held Wednesday noon at 1 o'clock at Mowery school house, east of Pickering.

The sentiment in these districts seems to favor the consolidation plan. The patrons of the Glendale school have not thoroughly decided whether they will enter with the other districts in a consolidation plan.

The school districts that are now talking of consolidating into one are Pickering, Bloomfield, Mowery, Lock and possibly Glendale. The proposition will be voted on at the April school election on Tuesday, April 2, in these districts. The closing meeting to discuss the proposition will be held at Pickering, Saturday, March 23.

There are now in the state eighteen consolidated districts, located in ten different counties. Some of the advantages of the consolidation plan are it educates the children at home and central high schools and makes possible a country school equal in every sense to the best city schools, yet within the reach of the farm houses. It will reduce the per capita cost of education in the districts affected, and the plan is more economical. Consolidation tends toward a more healthy social spirit in the school and in the community, and the students are conveyed to the school building in a comfortable vehicle. It means better teachers and better taught schools.

A number of other districts are talking of the consolidating plan, but these districts in Union township are the first ones to vote on the proposition.

MISS LYMAN TONIGHT.

Will Give Her Lecture at the Christian Church on "The Listening Child."

Story telling bears an important part in education of the child. The love for stories is old, as old as the fathers of the race. "Tell me a story" we say, and settle ourselves more comfortably for enjoyment of the coming treat.

We have but one short life to live, and most of us live it out in the country. Over the whole wide earth the story teller may range, bringing back the best from all ages and all climes. "A story told at the right time," says Froebel, "is a looking glass to the mind." One who holds up this glass to the mind of the child helps him to a broader life. This is the message brought by Miss Edna Lyman, who lectures Wednesday, March 13, at 8 p. m., at the Christian church. Her subject is "The Listening Child."

Returning to Canada.

Mrs. Lawrence Doran and her sons, Robert and Cecil, left Wednesday for their home at Ponoka, Alberta, Canada. They have been spending the past winter in Maryville with Mr. Dosan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Doran of South Vine street. Mrs. Doran left her 13-year-old daughter, Magdalene, at St. Patrick's school, to finish the year's course.

Has Broken Wrist.

Dr. W. B. Finn received word Wednesday morning from Mrs. Finn, who is in Denver, Col., stating that she fell a few days since and broke one of her wrists. She thought it was nothing more than a sprain at first and did not go to a physician until the next day after the injury.

Mr. Elbert Watson and his sister, Miss Nellie, of Pickering were in Maryville on business Wednesday.

ADVERTISING PAYS.

S. P. Lampkin, stockholder in the Ely & Walker Dry Goods company, owner of five general stores in Missouri and Arkansas, and capitalist, spoke Saturday afternoon to the St. Louis Advertising Men's League at the City club on "My Experience as a Country Merchant and Advertiser." Mr. Lampkin attributes his success to newspaper advertising.

"When I first started in business," Mr. Lampkin said, "one day a little girl came running into my store and said: 'Oh, Mr. Lampkin, there is a new baby at our house.' 'How old is it?' I asked. 'It isn't old at all; it is new,' she replied. That is what the public wants in advertisements, 'something new,' and the best medium I find through which to advertise is the newspaper. In my twenty-five years of experience in business as a proprietor of a general country store, wholesale dry goods merchant and manufacturer, I find that a newspaper advertisement that tells the people who you are, where you are and what you have to sell, is sure to mean success.

"As an example, I once wrote an advertisement to be inserted in a daily paper. It was a big hosiery sale and my advertisement read, '25, 15, 10 and 5-cent hosiery. The next morning I found that a mistake had been made and the advertisement read '25-cent hosiery for 5 cents.'

"That sale lost me $100 in actual money and cleaned me out of 25-cent hosiery, but I stuck to the advertisement and the sale was talked of all over the country. That was a sale that started the success of one of my stores, because I gave 25-cent values, as I had advertised, for a nickel. You can't fool a woman, and when an article is not up to the advertisement a customer is lost."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Enters Race For Democratic Nomination For Governor

WILLIAM S. COWHERD

W. S. Cowherd of Kansas City announced Tuesday afternoon that he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

In his statement, Mr. Cowherd said that by reason of past precedents, he might have some claim upon the party's consideration.

"The first duty of Democracy in the coming campaign is not to any individual, but to itself," he said. "In this spirit, moved somewhat by your solicitation, more perhaps than by my own desire, I shall submit my name again to the Democracy in the coming primary. If the party honors me with the nomination, I shall give the best efforts of which I am capable to the campaign that follows. If, in its wisdom, it selects another, no one will support him more willingly or more earnestly than myself."

Mr. Cowherd was candidate for governor four years ago. He obtained his nomination after a bitter contest with David A. Ball of Pike county. In the election, however, he was beaten by Governor Herbert S. Hadley.

There are several candidates for the Democratic nomination this year. Besides Mr. Cowherd there are Elliott W. Major, David A. Ball and James A. Houchin.

BALD HEADS.

More Women Are Bald Than Men, Says Authority.

This is a startling statement, but it's true, according to an article published in a standard magazine this year.

One thing is certain, Parisian Sage will surely prevent baldness by stopping the hair from falling, but it won't grow hair after the head is bald.

Ladies, look after your hair, destroy the dandruff germs with Parisian Sage and dandruff will disappear. It stops scalp itch over night and is guaranteed to be the most refreshing, refined and agreeable hair dressing that can be obtained. Sold by the Koch pharmacy and druggists all over America for 50 cents.

"My hair was falling out, and I was troubled with itching scalp. I received no benefit until I tried Parisian Sage."—Mrs. George Thunder, R. F. D. 5 Marshall, Mich.

PATENT HOLDERS HAVE MONOPOLY

Important Decision by United States Supreme Court.

AFFECTS MILLIONS OF PEOPLE

Three Justices Dissented From Opinion—Likely to Have Bearing on Many Cases for Violation of Sherman Law.

Washington, Mar. 12.—A far reaching decision upholding the right of patentees to dictate absolutely how their patented articles may be sold by retailers and declaring legal the inventor's monopoly in his selling contracts was made by the supreme court of the United States.

It was a divided court ruling, for against the majority view, announced by Justice Lurton, three members of the bench—Chief Justice White and Justices Hughes and Lamar — dissented.

Attorney General Wickersham, Solicitor General Lehmann and a large assembly of lawyers were present in the court and apparently regarded the decision as epoch making.

The case involved alleged infringement in selling supplies for use on a patented rotary mimeograph. A notice on the machine set forth that it was sold on the restriction that it was to be used only with the supplies made by the patenting company.

White Gives His Reason.

Chief Justice White said he dissented because he hoped a dissenting opinion might "serve as an antidote to a poison that might enter in the future into millions of transactions touching every phase of society."

He said with a limited patent, the patent law as construed by the majority could now reach out and by contract include within the patent every conceivable thing used in every American household.

In emphasizing the extent to which the decision would reach and how far already restrictions were placed on the sale of patented articles, Chief Justice White told of buying a razor recently.

"When I got home I found I had become an infringer of a patent because I had paid for the razor the price I had been asked and nothing more," said he.

At least, he declared, the majority should have placed a limit on its decision by which public policy would not allow the patent law to be used as a screen to commit wrongs and work monopoly in articles not patentable.

Will Affect Trust Suits.

Department of justice officials regard the patent decision as extremely important in the administration of the Sherman anti-trust law which is being invoked in a number of cases where it is alleged that patent rights are being overstepped to restrain trade. The case against the United Shoe Machinery company, it was declared, in all probability would not be affected by the decision. In that prosecution the government charges a combination and agreements to connect various patented shoe machines one with another to restrain trade.

ICE INJURES MISSOURI FRUIT

Limbs of Trees Around Springfield Covered and Much Other Damage Done.

Springfield, Mo., Mar. 12.—Springfield was practically cut off from all telegraphic and telephonic communication again as a result of a sheet of snow which covers wires, trees and everything in this section of the state. Not for three days, it is said, will communication by telephone or telegraph be entirely re-established. Between 600 and 1,000 Springfield telephones are out of commission. Electric light wires of high voltage have fallen in all sections of the city. Twenty-two telephone poles five miles west of here were broken by the weight of ice on the wires. Linemen are being rushed on trains from Republic, Marionville, Aurora and Monett. Ice on telephone and telegraph wires and on the limbs of trees is between one inch and one inch and a half thick. Young orchards in this section of the state have been greatly damaged.

BOOTLEGGERS BECOME WORRIED

Prospect of Trial Before Woman Judge in Colorado Causes Much Anxiety.

Glenwood Springs, Col., Mar. 12.—Several men charged with bootlegging in Eagle county now feel added anxiety as to the outcome of their case because of the fact that they will be tried before a woman judge and their fates, from all indications, will rest with a jury composed partly of women.

Mrs. L. M. Tague, the only woman judge in Colorado, will preside in the county court of Eagle county, where the bootlegging cases will be tried. Most of the venire summoned for the jury are women.

EDWIN VAILE M'INTYRE PLEASED

Gave Two Hours' Program of Pipe Organ Numbers at the Christian Church.

Edwin Vaile McIntyre gave one of his almost matchless pipe organ concerts at the First Christian church Wednesday night to a small but appreciative audience. The bad condition of the walks and streets prevented a large attendance. His performance of two years ago in January, when he dedicated the organ, was heard by a large audience. His program of two hours on this visit was fully as pleasing, and elicited the heartiest expression of appreciation. The heaviest numbers were an overture by Weber and the Mignon by Thomas. His closing number, a military march with medley of national airs, proved the most popular, as it did on his first visit. It was fully fifteen minutes in length, but no one grew tired of it.

Mrs. Rufus Ringgold and little daughter, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Johnson, since Saturday, returned home Wednesday afternoon in Pickering with Mr. Wray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wray.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson and family returned to their home in Guilford Wednesday from a visit since Friday with Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. George Lucas, and family.

Miss Sarah Stelters of St. Joseph, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. H. Lemon, living southwest of Maryville, returned to her home in St. Joseph Wednesday.

Mr. S. M. Van Cleave, a traveling salesman out of Kansas City, was accompanied on his trip to Maryville Tuesday and Wednesday by Mrs. Van Cleave.

C. D. Bellows went to Kansas City Tuesday evening for a short business trip.

Mrs. James Evans of Bedison was shopping in Maryville Wednesday.

BOY SHOT ENEMIES WITH RIFLE

Pittsburg Negro Wounded Two From Ambush Near Main Business Corner.

Pittsburg, Kan., Mar. 12.—Dewey Anderson, a 16-year-old negro boy, started out to be a bandit. Armed with a .22 rifle he took a position in a barn a block from the main business corner of Pittsburg and waited for victims. J. W. Noland, a miner, with whom the boy was angry, was the first to pass. The boy fired and Noland staggered a few yards and fell. The bullet had penetrated his abdomen. The miner was taken to Mount Carmel hospital where his death is expected at any time.

Next Clarence Livingston, a schoolmate of the youthful bandit, passed. Anderson fired at the boy's head. The bullet entered the shoulder and Livingston was not severely injured. Anderson evaded the police until night, when he was arrested and taken to jail. Noland was on his way to a restaurant to buy a delicacy for his child lying dangerously ill at home.

WOMAN STRIKER HAD REVOLVER

Arrests Caused Demonstration at Lawrence, Mass., Which Led the Police to Use Clubs.

Lawrence, Mass., Mar. 12.—A demonstration in front of the police station by several hundred strikers and sympathizers, including many women, threatened for a time to develop into a riot. The crowd assembled after the arrest of a woman striker and became so menacing that the police had to use their clubs.

The police say the woman displayed a revolver while picketing.

SUGAR TRUST TRIAL BEGINS

Officers and Directors Must Now Face Criminal Prosecution.

USED TRICKY TACTICS AT START

Chief Defendant Failed to Appear in Court at Afternoon Session, but Absence was Discovered and Carefully "Explained."

New York, Mar. 12.—The trial of the big sugar trust magnates under indictment of conspiracy to restrain interstate trade and commerce began with United States Attorney Wise and his assistants in an all-day struggle against one of the most powerful arrays of corporation lawyers in America to impanel a jury in the criminal branch of the United States district court before Judge Hand.

The jury from a panel of 100 had been completed and accepted at half past five when the government's chief prosecuting officer called the attention of the court to the fact that one of the chief defendants was absent.

Parsons Was Missing.

This man was the venerable John E. Parsons, who guided the big combination through the legal labyrinths from its organization more than twenty years ago to the close of the regime of Henry O. Havmeyer. Mr. Parsons, hale and hardy in appearance, despite his nearly 83 years, had witnessed the proceedings in the forenoon but he did not return to the afternoon session of court. His absence was immediately discovered by District Attorney Wise, but Judge Hand accepted the explanation of Delancey Nicoll that the veteran general counsel of the sugar trust would soon appear in the court room. Not until after the jury had been completed did Mr. Nicoll further explain that his distinguished client, not forseeing that the jury would be assembled so expeditiously, had gone to a hospital, of whose board he is a member. Judge Hand then, at the request of Mr. Wise, declined to have the jurors sworn in the absence of one of the chief defendants, as this might invalidate the entire record of the proceeding.

Promised to be Present.

Judge Hand will administer the oath to the jurors in the morning, when Mr. Parsons has promised to be present. Then will begin what probably will be an epoch-making proceedure in American jurisprudence. With the exception of the trial of the beef trust barons at Chicago, none of the officers of a great industrial combination have before been brought in a body to plead to an indictment for violating the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The defendants in court were W. B. Thomas, who succeeded Havemeyer as executive of the sugar trust; Arthur Donner and George H. Frazier, directors, and Thomas B. Harned, a Philadelphia lawyer, charged with aiding the trust to secure control of the Pennsylvania Refining company. It is upon this transaction that the blanket indictment against the American Sugar Refining company and its officers and directors named was based.

The questions asked of the prospective jurors indicated that this trial is to be distinguished from all others of its kind by making "big business" the chief issue. Every one of the twelve men accepted had first to satisfy both sides that he had no prejudice against "big business."

Denver Robber Shot Companion Who Deliberately Killed Two Men.

Denver, Mar. 12.—Edward Seiwald, 19 years old, enraged by the conduct of his companion in their attempted holdup of a saloon in Valverde, a suburb of Denver, shot his compaion twice.

In his statement to the police Seiwald said that he entered the saloon behind Oscar Cook, his companion, and that Cook at once shot William Mcpherson, a patrolman, and A. L. Loyd, the owner of the saloon. That incensed Seiwald so that he shot Cook and fled. McPherson and Loyd died of their wounds and Cook is dying. Cook admitted the wounds in his body were inflicted "while he was doing a job."

DR. WILEY TO BE AN EDITOR

Will Resign as Chief of Government Chemistry Bureau.

NOT TO LEAVE IMMEDIATELY

Has Asked Appointment of Successor Who Will Carry Out Work He Has Begun—Up to Secretary Wilson.

Washington, Mar. 12.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry in the department of agriculture, has decided to resign his office and accept lucrative business offers which he has had under consideration for several weeks. There have been rumors of such an intention on his part during the last fortnight, but they have been positively denied by Dr. Wiley.

The public has settled down to the expectation that he would continue to lead the great struggle to safeguard the public health by preventing the adulteration of foods—a struggle with which his name is indelibly connected for all time.

The Story "Not Ripe."

It is known that there have been conferences between Dr. Wiley and Secretary Wilson, in which the subject of Dr. Wiley's resignation has been discussed, but when the secretary was asked if he could confirm the statement, he replied:

"To whom has Dr. Wiley tendered his resignation?" and continued, "not to me surely. He hasn't told me of it yet."

A moment later he added: "That story isn't ripe enough to pick yet."

The considerations which are said to have led to Dr. Wiley's determination to sever his connection with the government service are that he has received an offer of a large salary to become editor of a well known magazine. At the same time he is to have what is the equivalent of another large salary from his engagements on the lecture platform, where he is today one of the most popular speakers.

Thirty Years in Service.

In view of the exceptionally large income offered, Dr. Wiley finds it practically unavoidable to comply. He has given nearly 30 years of the best of his life to the public service, and has accomplished for the American people a work that is monumentally great in its purpose, scope and completeness.

It is understood that Dr. Wiley will not give up his work immediately, as he is desirous of obtaining the appointment of a successor who will carry forward his life work along the same lines of protection to the public. He has indicated his preferences to Secretary Wilson, but thus far has had no assurances that his recommendations will be accepted. The appointment is in the power of the secretary of agriculture.

ALL CHURCHES MEET TOGETHER

Religious Educational Association Opens Ninth General Convention in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mar. 12.—The first session of the ninth general convention of the Religious Education association was held in the Odeon auditorium here this afternoon, and was attended by nearly 2,000 delegates, representing all the important sects in the country, including Catholic, Protestant and Jewish.

The discussion centered on churches and pastors, the general theme being "The Development of Religious Leadership Through the Churches." Jonathan Le Moyne Snyder, president of the Michigan Agricultural college, opened the session with an address on "The Training of Religious Leaders for Church Work in Rural Communities." Mr. Snyder's discourse was followed by a discussion on the proper training of boys for leadership in religion. The meeting was concluded by a devotional service.

Special sessions will be held tomorrow morning and afternoon for discussion on "Churches and Pastors." The general themes will be: "The Leadership of the Church in Many Fields," and "The Nature and Scope of Church Leadership in the Field of Education." A special session will also be held tomorrow afternoon by the Sunday school department.

The convention will continue for three days, during which time more than thirty meetings are scheduled to be held.

Killed by a Train.

Bucklin, Mo., Mar. 12.—Falling from a freight train here, James Gray of Bevier, Mo., caught his foot in one of the steps leading up the side of a boxcar and was dragged along the frozen ground for 100 yards. He finally extricated his foot, but fell in such a manner that his leg went under the wheels and was cut off. He died a few hours later.

Earth Shocks in Alaska.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 12.—An earthquake of more than average severity was recorded on the seismograph of the University of Washington from 2:13 to 3:10 a. m. It is believed the earthquake was in Alaska. Following the two minutes of preliminaries the record showed four or five minutes of heavy shocks, then 50 minutes of less violent motion.

DAILY DEMOCRAT-FORUM

(Successor to the Maryville Republican)

VOLUME 2. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY, MAR. 13, 1912 NO. 243.

MR. CLARK WAS 62

HIS ANNIVERSARY MADE OCCASION FOR GREAT DEMONSTRATION

HOLDS TO POST OF DUTY

While Other Candidates Are "Beating Up the Brush," Speaker is Attending Strictly to Business.

By VAN CLEVE.

Washington, D. C., March 10.—A remarkable meeting was held here Thursday evening. Ten thousand people crowded into the big convention hall to honor Champ Clark on the occasion of his sixty-second birthday. No such testimonial was ever given to any one here, and the Missouri speaker can lay claim to the biggest birthday party yet pulled off. The affair followed a series of informal expressions of esteem and good will during the day in the house of representatives and was teeming with enthusiasm. A number of excellent speeches were made, the greatest being that of Senator James A. Reed of Missouri. Senator Reed captivated his great audience with his eloquence, in which he pictured the history of the Democracy and contrasted Champ Clark's consistent and unvarying fidelity to his party, his great constructive leadership, his courageous efforts in behalf of the people and the achievements of his life, with the vaccillating uncertainties of one of the Republican candidates and the flippant eccentricities of the other.

The senator's address was frequently stopped by applause, and he received a great ovation at its close. Other addresses were made by Representatives Neely of Kansas, Graham of Illinois and former Representative Pence of Colorado. A band lent its enlivening strains and the crowd frequently joined in singing popular songs. At the close of the program Mr. Clark arose to express his appreciation and was greeted with cheers that lasted for several minutes, the entire audience rising to their feet and waving handkerchiefs, etc. Deeply affected by the demonstration, the speaker made a short and appropriate response, in which he assured the people that, whatever might be the outcome of the campaign in his behalf, he wanted no friend of his to utter "an unkind word against any other candidate" for the Democratic nomination. The affair was gotten up by his friends here in the district, and they confidently expect to secure the votes of the District of Columbia for him at Baltimore.

Within the past week several of the big dailies of the east that have refused to regard Champ Clark as seriously in the race, have revised their estimates, and state that he is no longer to be regarded as a dark horse or a compromise candidate, but must now be placed as first or second in the race. Harmon stock has declined rapidly and the race is conceded to be between Clark and Wilson. Up to the present Clark is not only in the lead but is the only candidate with any showing of delegates. He has forty-six delegates instructed, with twenty more coming from Kansas next Wednesday, unless his friends there are badly deceived. Of the balance, Wilson has ten from Oklahoma, Harmon none, Underwood none. Had the Oklahoma convention been later or Mr. Folk's withdrawal earlier, the entire delegation from that state would have gone to Clark. It was persistently argued there that he was in danger of losing his own state, and this was a great handicap. Many delegates were uninstructed, and Gov. Harmon had enough to hold the balance of power. Had Clark's friends agreed to tie up with the Harmon following and divide the state, they could have controlled the situation, but they refused to do this, and instead agreed to an equal division with Wilson. The speaker has persistently refused to tie up with any other candidate, insisting that he must win on his own merits, if at all. At the same time he wants no abuse of other candidates. Recognizing his rapidly growing strength, advantage has been taken of his desire for party harmony within the past week, and stories of a combination against Gov. Wilson have been circulated by some of his followers. The loud cry of "combination" always indicates a feeling of weakness and alarm, and, unless substantiated with incontestable facts, harms the complainant more than it does good. When advised to fight back, Mr. Clark replies: "What will it profit me to gain the nomination and lose the election?"

* * *

While other candidates for the presidential nomination are forsaking their posts of duty and scurrying over the country making speeches, Champ Clark has refused to leave the speaker's chair. He holds that having been elected to the place, his duty is to stay with it and let his friends and the people work out the presidential situation to suit themselves. The only exception he has made was to run down to his old home state of Kentucky Saturday afternoon and speak to the Kentucky legislature. He was absent from the chair only a few hours, and has been in his place every day since the present session began. In the judgment of the writer this is the best politics he could play, notwithstanding the clamor there has been for him to accept numerous invitations to all parts of the country. Of recent years there has been entirely too much personal electioneering on the part of presidential candidates. The old-time dignity of the office has been forgotten, and neither the position nor the president's have been exalted in the eyes of the people. The best campaign promise is a record of public service well done and of acts and efforts to promote right and justice between men and toward all men.

BLUES ARE VICTORIOUS.

A Hotly Contested Game Tuesday Between That Team and High Flyers.

In a hotly contested game on Tuesday evening, the Blues defeated the High Flyers, another all-high school team, by a 27-20 score. Considerable interest is being manifested in these inter-high school games, and quite a number of enthusiastic rooters were lustily cheering for their favorites. The Blues have been working together almost all winter, and are beginning to show considerable form together with very pretty team work. Taylor at forward and Miller at guard showed up particularly well for them in yesterday evening's game, while Ford was the principal performer for their opponents. The High Flyers, though but recently organized, have some excellent material to work with, and by the time they next clash with their opponents, should be able to make the game a hair raiser. The question is now being agitated in regard to forming a four-team league in the high school for those who take no interest in track work. It is thought by those interested in the plan, that if a small admission is charged the money obtained in this way would aid very materially in equipping the track team.

The line-up of the game:

The Blues—Robinson, Taylor, Condon, forwards; Willson, center; Blagg, Miller, guards.

The High Flyers—Montgomery, Ford, forwards; Thompson, center; Lyle, Campbell, guards.

Points made—Field goals, Robinson, Taylor 6, Willson 4, Condon, Thompson 3, Montgomery 2, Ford 5. Free throws, Robinson, Taylor 2.

Referee, Leach.

R. L. THOMPSON DEAD

PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY THIS MORNING AT UNIONVILLE.

AT O. S. MIDDLETON HOME

Was M. E. Pastor at Mound City—a Maryville Pastor in 1904-5—Succeeded Rev. Lytle.

Rev. R. L. Thompson, pastor of the M. E. church at Mound City, died suddenly at Unionville, Mo., at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, at the home of the late Rev. O. S. Middleton, whose funeral services he had been called to conduct on Tuesday afternoon.

The news of Rev. Thompson's death was received by phone message from Rev. T. J. Enyeart of St. Joseph to District Superintendent Christy of this city. Rev. Enyeart was in Unionville with other ministers who had gone to that city to attend Rev. Middleton's funeral. He stated that the body would be taken to Mound City Thursday. No further particulars are yet known, but it is supposed by Maryville friends that he died of an acute attack of gastritis, from which he was a great sufferer.

Rev. Thompson succeeded Rev. E. B. Lytle to the pastorate of the First M. E. church in Maryville in 1904 and continued as pastor two years. He was followed by Rev. Grant A. Robbins, now of St. Louis. Rev. Thompson was about 60 years of age and had been a member of the Missouri conference since 1879. He held pastorates at Middletown, Sand Hill, Green City, Macon, Bethany, Stanberry, Kirksville, Maryville, Huffman Memorial church at St. Joseph, Hamilton and Mound City. He was presiding elder of the Cameron district in 1891 to 1896.

NO SNOW THERE.

J. L. Gunsolley Writes to This Paper About the Climate in Southern Missouri.

Eldorado Springs, Mo.—Editor Democrat-Forum: Agreeable to promise I essay the task of writing you a few lines in the way of condolence. I read in the papers of the snow you have and are still having. We have had but little snow here this winter up to February 20, but since then we have had something like one and a half feet all told, but one snow would be nearly gone when the other would come, and no drifts. Frost has been out of the ground for three weeks, so we have had some mud, but not the stick kind. This country is not up with the counties farther north with good roads, but we hope to get into line soon and make some needed improvements. It is raining today, but I would rather see that than snow drifts six to ten feet deep. I like this southern climate fine, much better than Northern Missouri, so no one need look for me back there to live. Old settlers say this is the worst winter they ever saw here. Feed is high here. Much of it is shipped in. Corn is worth 75 cents, and other feeds in proportion. The protracted drought last summer cut all crops short, but the ground is wet now to the bottom layer. It is thought that peaches are about all killed. You people have my sympathy in times of deep snow and impassable drifts.

DEATH OF J. R. BROOKS.

Was Found Dead in Bed Wednesday Morning by His Wife—Lived at Graham.

J. R. Brooks, who lived at Graham, died suddenly Wednesday morning and was found dead in bed by his wife about 5 o'clock. He had been in ill health for some time, and the cause of the death was tuberculosis of the lungs. Mr. Brooks is about 50 years old and had lived at Graham several years. Mrs. Brooks is the telephone central operator at that town.

The funeral will be held Thursday and burial will take place in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. No children survive.

WILL HUNT FOR OIL

WORK TO COMMENCE AS SOON AS THE SNOW IS OFF.

30000 ACRES UNDER LEASE

Allen Brothers Will Meet R. W. Wallace in St. Joseph Thursday to Confer as to Lease Changes.

John Allen of this city will go to St. Joseph Thursday to meet R. W. Wallace, who was in Nodaway county last fall getting leases on farm land to prospect for oil and gas, to confer with him in regard to the leases and other matters. Joseph Allen, who has been in Texas, will meet them in St. Joseph.

The leases were all turned over to Allen Bros. of this city, and since W. J. Nelson of St. Louis, one of the interested parties, withdrew, it is necessary that his name be left out in the leases, as eastern parties have taken Nelson's place.

Mr. Wallace writes that all the necessary tools and machinery will be here soon, and that work will start just as soon as the snow is off of the ground and a place is located where it is more likely that oil can be found. Mr. Wallace has been away from the county for several months and will return as soon as the work of prospecting will start. He feels confident that oil will be found here. There are over 30,000 acres of land in the county that have been leased to prospect for oil and gas.

Observed Her Birthday.

Mrs. Lizzie Richey, living at 402 South Hester street, was surprised Tuesday by her children and a number of her neighbors who came with well filled baskets and spread a sumptuous dinner in honor of her birthday anniversary. Those present were David Richey of Fanning, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richey of Burlington Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Wagner of Burlington Junction, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ulmer, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Edwards and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ulmer and two daughters, Miss Golda Majors and son, Ollie.

The Shakespeareans Met.

The Shakespearean department of the Twentieth Century club were delighted to meet and greet their hostess, Mrs. Horace Leet, after her long illness, on Tuesday afternoon. After quotations from Act I of "The Tempest," a general outline of the study was given by Miss Clara Sturm in lieu of Miss Mae Corwin, who had prepared it but was unable to be present. A general symposium was conducted by Mrs. D. J. Thomas, the chairman. The song by Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend was postponed until the next meeting, which will be held with Mrs. Berney Harris, and instead of this program Mrs. Scribner Beech, Sr., provided with a large map, gave a fine talk on Mexico, the inhabitants, the insurrection, and the future outlook, showing that her heart, or a good part of it, was in that much discussed country at present. Mrs. Beech's daughter, Mrs. Curtis Alexander, is a resident of San Luis Potosi. Her letters to her parents convey no such news of impending war and danger to Americans that the newspapers have been telling of. But Mr. and Mrs. Alexander are a good three days' travel from the recent scenes of revolution, and there has not been even a hint of trouble in their region. Mrs. George P. Bellows called attention to many interesting current events, from the advent of a new rose to the outburst of the suffragettes. If each lady of the club does not become a first class parliamentarian it will be for no lack of perfect drill by Mrs. E. G. Orear. After the program was concluded Mrs. Leet served dainty refreshments. Mrs. M. A. Ummethum of Kansas City, Mrs. Orear's mother, was a visitor during the afternoon.

PRAISE FOR NORMAL.

Remarks of Prominent School Men Are Very Complimentary to the School Here.

While in Mound City last Friday acting as a judge in the Mound City-Savannah high school debate, Prof. E. L. Harrington of the Normal, received many hearty endorsements of the work carried on by the Maryville Normal. While in Mound City Mr. Harrington spent most of his time with J. U. Crosen, superintendent of the Mound City schools, and also with Superintendent Brooks of the Oregon schools. Both of these men were loud in their praises of what they had been hearing this year concerning the work of the Northwest Normal school. Supt. Crosen said that nearly all of his grade teachers were in attendance at the 1911 summer term of the local Normal, and that he, as superintendent, could easily see the marked improvement in their efficiency as teachers, due to their training in the summer school. Last summer a large delegation of splendid young people from Holt county attended the Normal, and even a larger number will be in attendance this summer.

As Supts. Crosen and Brooks are recognized throughout the state as strong school men, such remarks as the above means that the good work of the Normal is being recognized among those who are able to judge efficiently. The remarks of these men are but an example of the many flattering reports that are coming in from various parts of the district.

APRIL 5 ARBOR DAY.

Governor Hadley Issued Proclamation for Arbor Day.

Governor Hadley Monday issued the following Arbor day proclamation:

"Whereas, the laws of this state set aside the first Friday after the first Tuesday in April of each year, which this year falls on April 5, as Arbor day, and provide that the teachers, pupils and patrons of the different schools throughout the state shall, on that day, encourage the planting of trees, shrubbery, and flowers upon and around the school grounds, in order that said grounds may be rendered pleasant and attractive;

"Now therefore, I, Herbert S. Hadley, governor of the state of Missouri, request that, in accordance with the provisions of said law, every public, private and denominational school shall comply with the letter and spirit of the state law and plant upon the school grounds, with proper ceremonies, some tree, shrub, or flower native to Missouri.

"I suggest that the public exercises conducted be such as will serve to impress the children and the parents and the people of the state generally with the value and importance of encouraging forestry and the proper use and conservation of our soil and other great natural resources. I have requested Hon. William P. Evans, state superintendent of public schools, to communicate to the different schools of the state suggestions as to the character and nature of the exercises to be conducted."

Latter Part of Week in Rasco Case—May Grant Respite.

Word was received in Maryville Wednesday afternoon that Governor Hadley would not give a decision in regard to the Rasco appeal for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment until the latter part of the week. It is thought, however, that while the governor is opposed to capital punishment, he will not give a decision contrary to the decision of the supreme court.

As is always customary in cases of this kind, Governor Hadley may grant Rasco a respite of thirty days, putting the hanging off that many more days. But it is understood that the attorneys, in presenting the case to Governor Hadley, told him that they were not after a respite, and that they want him to decide the commutation of the sentence one way or the other.

Dr. F. M. Ryan of Quitman was in Maryville Wednesday a short time on his way to Hopkins for a professional visit.

Miss Fronie Echterling returned to her home in Parnell Wednesday from a visit with Maryville friends.

CONSOLIDATION TO BE VOTED ON IN UNION TOWNSHIP.

TALKING IT OVER NOW

The Vote Taken April 2 Will Decide Question, With Every Probability That It Will Go Through.

The meetings that President H. K. Taylor and County Superintendent W. M. Oakerson are holding in Union township to talk of the advantages of the consolidation of schools are very successful, and a good attendance was present at each meeting. The first meeting was held at Bloomfield Tuesday afternoon, and then on Tuesday night, a meeting was held at Glendale school house, two and a half miles north of Pickering. A meeting was held Wednesday noon at 1 o'clock at Mowery school house, east of Pickering.

The sentiment in these districts seems to favor the consolidation plan. The patrons of the Glendale school have not thoroughly decided whether they will enter with the other districts in a consolidation plan.

The school districts that are now talking of consolidating into one are Pickering, Bloomfield, Mowery, Lock and possibly Glendale. The proposition will be voted on at the April school election on Tuesday, April 2, in these districts. The closing meeting to discuss the proposition will be held at Pickering, Saturday, March 23.

There are now in the state eighteen consolidated districts, located in ten different counties. Some of the advantages of the consolidation plan are it educates the children at home and central high schools and makes possible a country school equal in every sense to the best city schools, yet within the reach of the farm houses. It will reduce the per capita cost of education in the districts affected, and the plan is more economical. Consolidation tends toward a more healthy social spirit in the school and in the community, and the students are conveyed to the school building in a comfortable vehicle. It means better teachers and better taught schools.

A number of other districts are talking of the consolidating plan, but these districts in Union township are the first ones to vote on the proposition.

MISS LYMAN TONIGHT.

Will Give Her Lecture at the Christian Church on "The Listening Child."

Story telling bears an important part in education of the child. The love for stories is old, as old as the fathers of the race. "Tell me a story" we say, and settle ourselves more comfortably for enjoyment of the coming treat.

We have but one short life to live, and most of us live it out in the country. Over the whole wide earth the story teller may range, bringing back the best from all ages and all climes. "A story told at the right time," says Froebel, "is a looking glass to the mind." One who holds up this glass to the mind of the child helps him to a broader life. This is the message brought by Miss Edna Lyman, who lectures Wednesday, March 13, at 8 p. m., at the Christian church. Her subject is "The Listening Child."

Returning to Canada.

Mrs. Lawrence Doran and her sons, Robert and Cecil, left Wednesday for their home at Ponoka, Alberta, Canada. They have been spending the past winter in Maryville with Mr. Doran's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Doran of South Vine street. Mrs. Doran left her 13-year-old daughter, Magdalene, at St. Patrick's school, to finish the year's course.

Has Broken Wrist.

Dr. W. B. Finn received word Wednesday morning from Mrs. Finn, who is in Denver, Col., stating that she fell a few days since and broke one of her wrists. She thought it was nothing more than a sprain at first and did not go to a physician until the next day after the injury.

Mr. Elbert Watson and his sister, Miss Nellie, of Pickering were in Maryville on business Wednesday.

ADVERTISING PAYS.

S. P. Lampkin, stockholder in the Ely & Walker Dry Goods company, owner of five general stores in Missouri and Arkansas, and capitalist, spoke Saturday afternoon to the St. Louis Advertising Men's League at the City club on "My Experience as a Country Merchant and Advertiser." Mr. Lampkin attributes his success to newspaper advertising.

"When I first started in business," Mr. Lampkin said, "one day a little girl came running into my store and said: 'Oh, Mr. Lampkin, there is a new baby at our house.' 'How old is it?' I asked. 'It isn't old at all; it is new,' she replied. That is what the public wants in advertisements, 'something new,' and the best medium I find through which to advertise is the newspaper. In my twenty-five years of experience in business as a proprietor of a general country store, wholesale dry goods merchant and manufacturer, I find that a newspaper advertisement that tells the people who you are, where you are and what you have to sell, is sure to mean success.

"As an example, I once wrote an advertisement to be inserted in a daily paper. It was a big hosiery sale and my advertisement read, '25, 15, 10 and 5-cent hosiery. The next morning I found that a mistake had been made and the advertisement read '25-cent hosiery for 5 cents.'

"That sale lost me $100 in actual money and cleaned me out of 25-cent hosiery, but I stuck to the advertisement and the sale was talked of all over the country. That was a sale that started the success of one of my stores, because I gave 25-cent values, as I had advertised, for a nickel. You can't fool a woman, and when an article is not up to the advertisement a customer is lost."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

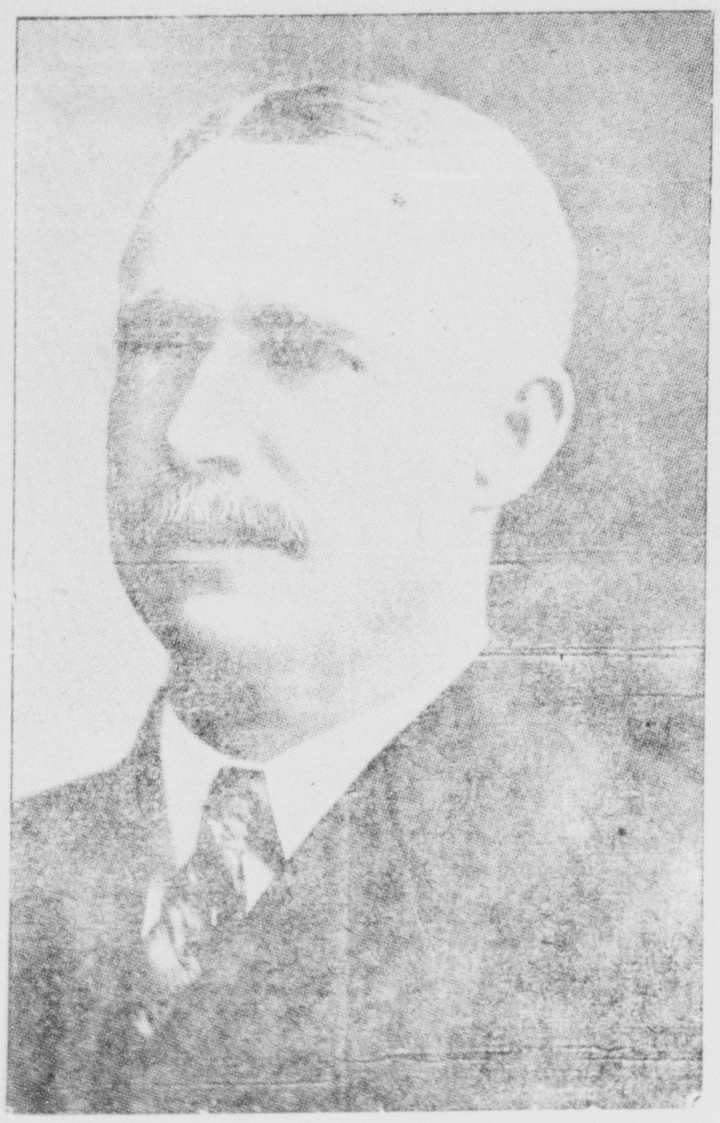
Enters Race For Democratic Nomination For Governor



WILLIAM S. COWHERD

W. S. Cowherd of Kansas City announced Tuesday afternoon that he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

In his statement, Mr. Cowherd said that by reason of past precedents, he might have some claim upon the party's consideration.

"The first duty of Democracy in the coming campaign is not to any individual, but to itself," he said. "In this spirit, moved somewhat by your solicitation, more perhaps than by my own desire, I shall submit my name again to the Democracy in the coming primary. If the party honors me with the nomination, I shall give the best efforts of which I am capable to the campaign that follows. If, in its wisdom, it selects another, no one will support him more willingly or more earnestly than myself."

Mr. Cowherd was candidate for governor four years ago. He obtained his nomination after a bitter contest with David A. Ball of Pike county. In the election, however, he was beaten by Governor Herbert S. Hadley.

More Women Are Bald Than Men, Says Authority.

This is a startling statement, but it's true, according to an article published in a standard magazine this year.

Ladies, look after your hair, destroy the dandruff germs with Parisian Sage and dandruff will disappear. It stops scalp itch over night and is guaranteed to be the most refreshing, refined and agreeable hair dressing that can be obtained. Sold by the Koch pharmacy and druggists all over America for 50 cents.

"My hair was falling out, and I was troubled with itching scalp. I received no benefit until I tried Parisian Sage."—Mrs. George Thunder, R. F. D. 5 Marshall, Mich.

PATENT HOLDERS HAVE MONOPOLY

Important Decision by United States Supreme Court.

AFFECTS MILLIONS OF PEOPLE

Three Justices Dissented From Opinion—Likely to Have Bearing on Many Cases for Violation of Sherman Law.

Washington, Mar. 12.—A far reaching decision upholding the right of patentees to dictate absolutely how their patented articles may be sold by retailers and declaring legal the inventor's monopoly in his selling contracts was made by the supreme court of the United States.

It was a divided court ruling, for against the majority view, announced by Justice Lurton, three members of the bench—Chief Justice White and Justices Hughes and Lamar — dissented.

Attorney General Wickersham, Solicitor General Lehmann and a large assembly of lawyers were present in the court and apparently regarded the decision as epoch making.

The case involved alleged infringement in selling supplies for use on a patented rotary mimeograph. A notice on the machine set forth that it was sold on the restriction that it was to be used only with the supplies made by the patenting company.

White Gives His Reason.

Chief Justice White said he dissented because he hoped a dissenting opinion might "serve as an antidote to a poison that might enter in the future into millions of transactions touching every phase of society."

He said with a limited patent, the patent law as construed by the majority could now reach out and by contract include within the patent every conceivable thing used in every American household.

In emphasizing the extent to which the decision would reach and how far already restrictions were placed on the sale of patented articles, Chief Justice White told of buying a razor recently.

"When I got home I found I had become an infringer of a patent because I had paid for the razor the price I had been asked and nothing more," said he.

At least, he declared, the majority should have placed a limit on its decision by which public policy would not allow the patent law to be used as a screen to commit wrongs and work monopoly in articles not patentable.

Will Affect Trust Suits.

Department of justice officials regard the patent decision as extremely important in the administration of the Sherman anti-trust law which is being invoked in a number of cases where it is alleged that patent rights are being overstepped to restrain trade. The case against the United Shoe Machinery company, it was declared, in all probability would not be affected by the decision. In that prosecution the government charges a combination and agreements to connect various patented shoe machines one with another to restrain trade.

ICE INJURES MISSOURI FRUIT

Limbs of Trees Around Springfield Covered and Much Other Damage Done.

Springfield, Mo., Mar. 12.—Springfield was practically cut off from all telegraphic and telephonic communication again as a result of a sheet of snow which covers wires, trees and everything in this section of the state. Not for three days, it is said, will communication by telephone or telegraph be entirely re-established. Between 600 and 1,000 Springfield telephones are out of commission. Electric light wires of high voltage have fallen in all sections of the city. Twenty-two telephone poles five miles west of here were broken by the weight of ice on the wires. Linemen are being rushed on trains from Republic, Marionville, Aurora and Monett. Ice on telephone and telegraph wires and on the limbs of trees is between one inch and one inch and a half thick. Young orchards in this section of the state have been greatly damaged.

BOOTLEGGERS BECOME WORRIED

Prospect of Trial Before Woman Judge in Colorado Causes Much Anxiety.

Glenwood Springs, Col., Mar. 12.—Several men charged with bootlegging in Eagle county now feel added anxiety as to the outcome of their case because of the fact that they will be tried before a woman judge and their fates, from all indications, will rest with a jury composed partly of women.

Mrs. L. M. Tague, the only woman judge in Colorado, will preside in the county court of Eagle county, where the bootlegging cases will be tried. Most of the venire summoned for the jury are women.

EDWIN VAILE M'INTYRE PLEASED

Gave Two Hours' Program of Pipe Organ Numbers at the Christian Church.

Edwin Vaile McIntyre gave one of his almost matchless pipe organ concerts at the First Christian church Wednesday night to a small but appreciative audience. The bad condition of the walks and streets prevented a large attendance. His performance of two years ago in January, when he dedicated the organ, was heard by a large audience. His program of two hours on this visit was fully as pleasing, and elicited the heartiest expression of appreciation. The heaviest numbers were an overture by Weber and the Mignon by Thomas. His closing number, a military march with medley of national airs, proved the most popular, as it did on his first visit. It was fully fifteen minutes in length, but no one grew tired of it.

Mrs. Rufus Ringgold and little daughter, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Johnson, since Saturday, returned home Wednesday afternoon in Pickering with Mr. Wray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wray.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson and family returned to their home in Guilford Wednesday from a visit since Friday with Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. George Lucas, and family.

Miss Sarah Stelters of St. Joseph, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. H. Lemon, living southwest of Maryville, returned to her home in St. Joseph Wednesday.

Mr. S. M. Van Cleave, a traveling salesman out of Kansas City, was accompanied on his trip to Maryville Tuesday and Wednesday by Mrs. Van Cleave.

C. D. Bellows went to Kansas City Tuesday evening for a short business trip.

Mrs. James Evans of Bedison was shopping in Maryville Wednesday.

BOY SHOT ENEMIES WITH RIFLE

Pittsburg Negro Wounded Two From Ambush Near Main Business Corner.

Pittsburg, Kan., Mar. 12.—Dewey Anderson, a 16-year-old negro boy, started out to be a bandit. Armed with a .22 rifle he took a position in a barn a block from the main business corner of Pittsburg and waited for victims. J. W. Noland, a miner, with whom the boy was angry, was the first to pass. The boy fired and Noland staggered a few yards and fell. The bullet had penetrated his abdomen. The miner was taken to Mount Carmel hospital where his death is expected at any time.

Next Clarence Livingston, a schoolmate of the youthful bandit, passed. Anderson fired at the boy's head. The bullet entered the shoulder and Livingston was not severely injured. Anderson evaded the police until night, when he was arrested and taken to jail. Noland was on his way to a restaurant to buy a delicacy for his child lying dangerously ill at home.

WOMAN STRIKER HAD REVOLVER

Arrests Caused Demonstration at Lawrence, Mass., Which Led the Police to Use Clubs.

Lawrence, Mass., Mar. 12.—A demonstration in front of the police station by several hundred strikers and sympathizers, including many women, threatened for a time to develop into a riot. The crowd assembled after the arrest of a woman striker and became so menacing that the police had to use their clubs.

The police say the woman displayed a revolver while picketing.

SUGAR TRUST TRIAL BEGINS

Officers and Directors Must Now Face Criminal Prosecution.

USED TRICKY TACTICS AT START

Chief Defendant Failed to Appear in Court at Afternoon Session, but Absence was Discovered and Carefully "Explained."

New York, Mar. 12.—The trial of the big sugar trust magnates under indictment of conspiracy to restrain interstate trade and commerce began with United States Attorney Wise and his assistants in an all-day struggle against one of the most powerful arrays of corporation lawyers in America to impanel a jury in the criminal branch of the United States district court before Judge Hand.

The jury from a panel of 100 had been completed and accepted at half past five when the government's chief prosecuting officer called the attention of the court to the fact that one of the chief defendants was absent.

Parsons Was Missing.

This man was the venerable John E. Parsons, who guided the big combination through the legal labyrinths from its organization more than twenty years ago to the close of the regime of Henry O. Havmeyer. Mr. Parsons, hale and hardy in appearance, despite his nearly 83 years, had witnessed the proceedings in the forenoon but he did not return to the afternoon session of court. His absence was immediately discovered by District Attorney Wise, but Judge Hand accepted the explanation of Delancey Nicoll that the veteran general counsel of the sugar trust would soon appear in the court room. Not until after the jury had been completed did Mr. Nicoll further explain that his distinguished client, not forseeing that the jury would be assembled so expeditiously, had gone to a hospital, of whose board he is a member. Judge Hand then, at the request of Mr. Wise, declined to have the jurors sworn in the absence of one of the chief defendants, as this might invalidate the entire record of the proceeding.

Promised to be Present.

Judge Hand will administer the oath to the jurors in the morning, when Mr. Parsons has promised to be present. Then will begin what probably will be an epoch-making proceedure in American jurisprudence. With the exception of the trial of the beef trust barons at Chicago, none of the officers of a great industrial combination have before been brought in a body to plead to an indictment for violating the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The defendants in court were W. B. Thomas, who succeeded Havemeyer as executive of the sugar trust; Arthur Donner and George H. Frazier, directors, and Thomas B. Harned, a Philadelphia lawyer, charged with aiding the trust to secure control of the Pennsylvania Refining company. It is upon this transaction that the blanket indictment against the American Sugar Refining company and its officers and directors named was based.

The questions asked of the prospective jurors indicated that this trial is to be distinguished from all others of its kind by making "big business" the chief issue. Every one of the twelve men accepted had first to satisfy both sides that he had no prejudice against "big business."

Denver Robber Shot Companion Who Deliberately Killed Two Men.

Denver, Mar. 12.—Edward Selwald 19 years old, enraged by the conduct of his companion in their attempted holdup of a saloon in Valverde, a suburb of Denver, shot his compaion twice.

In his statement to the police Selwald said that he entered the saloon behind Oscar Cook, his companion, and that Cook at once shot William Mcpherson, a patrolman, and A. L. Loyd, the owner of the saloon. That incensed Selwald so that he shot Cook and fled. McPherson and Loyd died of their wounds and Cook is dying. Cook admitted the wounds in his body were inflicted "while he was doing a job."

DR. WILEY TO BE AN EDITOR

Will Resign as Chief of Government Chemistry Bureau.

NOT TO LEAVE IMMEDIATELY

Has Asked Appointment of Successor Who Will Carry Out Work He Has Begun—Up to Secretary Wilson.

Washington, Mar. 12.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry in the department of agriculture, has decided to resign his office and accept lucrative business offers which he has had under consideration for several weeks. There have been rumors of such an intention on his part during the last fortnight, but they have been positively denied by Dr. Wiley.

The public has settled down to the expectation that he would continue to lead the great struggle to safeguard the public health by preventing the adulteration of foods—a struggle with which his name is indelibly connected for all time.

The Story "Not Ripe."

It is known that there have been conferences between Dr. Wiley and Secretary Wilson, in which the subject of Dr. Wiley's resignation has been discussed, but when the secretary was asked if he could confirm the statement, he replied:

"To whom has Dr. Wiley tendered his resignation?" and continued, "not to me surely. He hasn't told me of it yet."

A moment later he added: "That story isn't ripe enough to pick yet."

The considerations which are said to have led to Dr. Wiley's determination to sever his connection with the government service are that he has received an offer of a large salary to become editor of a well known magazine. At the same time he is to have what is the equivalent of another large salary from his engagements on the lecture platform, where he is today one of the most popular speakers.

Thirty Years in Service.

In view of the exceptionally large income offered, Dr. Wiley finds it practically unavoidable to comply. He has given nearly 30 years of the best of his life to the public service, and has accomplished for the American people a work that is monumentally great in its purpose, scope and completeness.

It is understood that Dr. Wiley will not give up his work immediately, as he is desirous of obtaining the appointment of a successor who will carry forward his life work along the same lines of protection to the public. He has indicated his preferences to Secretary Wilson, but thus far has had no assurances that his recommendations will be accepted. The appointment is in the power of the secretary of agriculture.

ALL CHURCHES MEET TOGETHER

Religious Educational Association Opens Ninth General Convention in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mar. 12.—The first session of the ninth general convention of the Religious Education association was held in the Odeon auditorium here this afternoon, and was attended by nearly 2,000 delegates, representing all the important sects in the country, including Catholic, Protestant and Jewish.

The discussion centered on churches and pastors, the general theme being "The Development of Religious Leadership Through the Churches." Jonathan Le Moyne Snyder, president of the Michigan Agricultural college, opened the session with an address on "The Training of Religious Leaders for Church Work in Rural Communities." Mr. Snyder's discourse was followed by a discussion on the proper training of boys for leadership in religion. The meeting was concluded by a devotional service.

Special sessions will be held tomorrow morning and afternoon for discussion on "Churches and Pastors." The general themes will be: "The Leadership of the Church in Many Fields," and "The Nature and Scope of Church Leadership in the Field of Education." A special session will also be held tomorrow afternoon by the Sunday school department.

The convention will continue for three days, during which time more than thirty meetings are scheduled to be held.

Killed by a Train.

Bucklin, Mo., Mar. 12.—Falling from a freight train here, James Gray of Bevier, Mo., caught his foot in one of the steps leading up the side of a boxcar and was dragged along the frozen ground for 100 yards. He finally extricated his foot, but fell in such a manner that his leg went under the wheels and was cut off. He died a few hours later.
